TEMPLE OF THE MUSES,
FINSBURY SQUARE.

LACKINGTON, ALLEN, AND CO.

Respectfully acquaint the PUBLIC of their having this Day purchased the remaining Copies of the following valuable Publications, which, in Conformity with their Plan of selling every Article at a reduced Price, for ready Money, are offered on the annexed very low Terms :

I.

MATTHEW POOLE'S ANNOTATIONS on the OLD and NEW TESTAMENT, wherein the Sacred Text is inserted, and various Readings annexed : together with the Parallel Scriptures ; the more difficult Terms in each Verse are explained ; seeming Contradictions reconciled ; Questions and Doubts resolved ; and the whole Text opened.

"As a succinct, plain, and accurate Exhibition of Scripture, Poole's Annotations may be said to have no equal in the English Language. In a few Words it throws Light upon the most difficult Phrases. As to those Passages about which Commentators have been much divided, it selects two or three of the most probable Interpretations, and usually marks that which upon the Whole should be preferred. In the same brief Way, it opens the Import of particular Phrases, by suggesting the principal Ideas included in them. It will prove of excellent Utility in Families, both for occasional Consultation, and also for ordinary Use, after reading a Chapter, or any Portion of Scripture. By such an use of it, Heads of Families, and ordinary Christians in general, will have their Minds enlarged, and stored with just Views of Scripture."

In 4 vols. 4to, Price 2l. 5s. in Boards, the very same as published at 3l. before the advanced Price of Paper, and which could not possibly be printed now under 4l.

II.

SAURIN'S SERMONS, on the Attributes of God, Truth of Revelation, Principal Doctrines of Christianity, Christian Morality, Sacramental Occasions, &c. Translated by ROBERT ROBINSON, of Cambridge, and Dr. HUNTER. To which are prefixed, Memoirs of the Reformation in France, and the Life of Saurin. A new Edition, printed on fine Wove Paper, with new Types ; published at 1l. 16s. ; 6 vols. 8vo, Boards, 1l. 5s.

The Name of Saurin, as a Preacher and a Scripture Critic, is universally known and admired ; the Construction of his Sermons is worthy of the serious Attention of every Teacher of Christianity who wishes to excel. He is eminent for the wise Choice of his Subjects, and the moral turn of his Discourses, which are all practical ; and set out from what point he will, he is certain of making his Way to the Heart. in order to regulate the Actions of Life. Another Character of his Discourses is Solidity, which he distinguishes from the fallacious glare of mere Wit and Ingenuity; not that his Sermons are void of Invention and Acuteness, but it is easy to see that his Design is not to display his own Genius, but to elucidate his Subject; and when Invention is subservient to Argument, and holds Light to a Subject, it appears in Character, beautiful, because in the Service and Livery of Truth.

III.

THOMSON and PRICE's LIFE of CHRIST, his APOSTLES, and their Successors, for 300 Years after the Crucifixion, with many fine Plates. Published at 13s. 6d. 4to; Boards, 8s. 6d.

The brightest of all Patterns is that exhibited in the Life of the Redeemer of Mankind; his Conduct may be held forth for the Imitation of all Men; his Piety was even and constant, without appearing to have any Thing in it so extraordinary as might not have been imitated by the most humble of his Followers. In the above History of his Life, it will be seen, that though he was free from Sin, "yet the Instances of his Piety were the Actions of a very holy, but of an ordinary Life;" and the whole Tenor of his Conduct tended to prove, that he so conversed with Men, that they, by copying his great Example, might for ever converse with him.
